Working Hard

Your Tiger Football Teams continue to work hard and get better every week. Your Tigers played well this week against the Lopez Panthers on Wednesday and Thursday afternoon. You may view the football results here.

Please come out and support your Tiger Blue and White Football Teams on Tuesday, Sept. 26, as your 8th grade Tigers host Bradley MS and your 7th grade Tigers as they travel to Bradley to face the Bears. Please come out and support your 7th and 8th Grade Tiger Red Football Teams on Wednesday, Sept. 27, as your Tigers travel to Bradley to face the Bears.

Coaches Corner

This week I would like to introduce you to Coach Taylor Spivey. Coach Spivey is entering his 4th year teaching at Tex Hill Middle School and 6th year overall in the profession. He is a husband and is the father of 2 year old Wyatt. This will be his second year teaching 6th grade World Cultures. The previous 2 years at Tex Hill Coach Spivey taught 8th grade US History. Coach Spivey graduated from Judson High School and received his college degree from Texas State in San Marcos, Texas. At Tex Hill, Coach Spivey will be coaching football and basketball.

Tiger Nation

Tiger Football: Please click on our Tex Hill Athletic Website for all information regarding our program. The website is updated regularly, so please check it often for updates and changes. You will find information such as the Tex Hill Football Schedule and Football Calendar. Please note that the Football Calendar is a working document and is subject to change. If you have not already subscribed to Coach Lozano's Text Reminders please do so. This is another way to receive information regarding our athletic program.

The Online Store has re-opened for anyone still needing to purchase any required items.

Friday, Oct. 6, is the eligibility checkpoint. All athletes failing at this checkpoint will lose their eligibility for the remainder of the football season.

On Friday, Oct. 13, both 7th and 8th grade football teams will be taking Team Pictures after school and also will be recognized at the Johnson vs. Churchill football game at Heroes Stadium (info coming soon).
